TURN ON THE LIGHT!

How Another Attempt at "Shakedown" Came to Grief.

WIRE AGAINST A REWARD

It smells very strongly of an attempted "shakedown."

The LEADER yesterday, in somewhat ironic vein, told of the arrest of one of the female performers at the recent Street Fair.

The charge was that on Saturday night last—just one week ago tonight—she had indulged in an improper proceeding at a prominent saloon cafe.

As might be supposed, the poor girl didn't have "money to burn," so the warrant was leveled at the saloon proprietor, who has a very good crop of the "long green."

It charged him, in the language of the law, with disorderly conduct and such for permitting the female woman to dance a dance on his premises—and then some.

Well, the case was called in Judge Wadsworth's Court at 2 p. m. yesterday—and of course there was a splendid audience.

Hon. James H. Salter, ex-Commonwealth's Attorney—who by the way was one of the witnesses—defended the saloonist and was engaged also to defend the girl.

The able City Attorney had enough papers on his desk to have sent a Regiment of Pilgrims to the Penitentiary for $3,000 a year, and after hobnobbing with the whole Police Force for 15 minutes, he brushed the cobwebs from his brain and the dust of age from his glasses and gravely announced that he was ready to play ball.

Mr. Salter took everybody's breath when he moved the Court to clear the desks—to put the "bleachers" out—in other words, that the large concourse of "pubs" should be scattered from the room—and that if they wanted to know what was done they could find out from THE LEADER.

The witnesses, both for prosecution and defense, embraced Clerks and Professionals, with a few lesser lights—showing that the City Attorney had an eye to the quality of his crew, even though they couldn't bolster up his rotten ship.

From the examination of the first witness for the prosecution, the Court saw plainly that there was literally "nothing in it," and when the second witness had told his story the Judge grew impatient at the Attorney's threatening and re-telling of old straw.

However, Mr. Wood pounded away, and the questions he asked were of the usual silly order—repeated and repeated and repeated, and then all repeated some more, by a man who has lost his case, in a deep hole and hasn't candor enough to say so and throw up the sponge.

Finally his wife were exhausted and he had to stop. The Court then moved to dismiss the charges, and the two witnesses were examined for the defense.

Then the City Attorney moved to dismiss the warrant as alleged, and asked for another charging the Saloonist with keeping open after hours!

The Court thereupon dismissed the Saloonist as well as the girl, for one case determined the other without further hearing.

Mr. Wood stated that he wanted the girl detained here until Monday as a witness in the new case.

Then Judge Wadsworth said he didn't think it necessary and wouldn't agree to it.

Attorney Wood, rising with majestic mien, gave the Court to understand, said, that it was his province to say who and who he would have for witnesses.

Then Judge Wadsworth put on his snipe-hunting suit and there are the gentle sound waves that floated out into the Courtroom atmosphere—

"And it is the province of the Court to say No!"—the No being punctuated with a sledgehammer blow on the desk that disjuncted 4 boards and ripped the heads off 3 ten-penny nails.

And then the City Attorney sat down with his majestic mien in reverse order.

It was a funny case.

By the testimony of every witness, from the officer who made the arrest to the last one who appeared on both sides, there wasn't a scintilla of proof that anything improper had taken place—and the witnesses were as reputable men as live in Maysville.

Why, who was the arrest of Miss Morris? Attorney Wood postponed from Saturday night until the Thursday afternoon following, after she had bought a ticket and had her baggage checked for Cincinnati!

She was on the streets every day, and the "fact" was known to the whole early day morning—that is, the "fact" that were brought out at yesterday's burlesque trial.

Under Judge Wadsworth's decision Miss Otero left last evening for her home at Cincinnati, triumphantly vindicated.

And the footnotes will go on as long as the good Lord refuses to order the Pool Killer on duty in Maysville.

THE BEE HIVE!

HEADQUARTERS FOR PIQUES

Our trade on Piques has been so large that we properly assume we are headquarters for this most popular fabric. There is nothing extant in plain or figured, white, colored or fancy piques that you will find it here. If your preference runs for narrow, wide or medium widths be assured they're here to your liking. Every piece is lowly priced—10c. to 45c. a yard.

Laces and Embroideries

Our immense and choice stock of these is so well known that we seldom advertise them. There are some new arrivals, however, that are worthy of your early inspection. Those popular Cream Applique Laces, with insertings to match, are here in great profusion and variety from the finest of the looms. They are made of the thousands of bolts, in all widths and designs, from 20c. a dozen yards to 75c. a yard. We are showing, too, a great line of Heavy Nainsook Embroideries, so well adapted for trimming the picture shirtwaist or skirt, and a host of dainty Swiss Embroideries. Prices 5c. to 60c. a yard.

Some Needful notions.

We can only mention a few of these, such as Pique Shirt Binding Sc. yard. Pique Pocket Buttons 15c. a set. Pocket Fasteners 15c. a dozen. The improved Bachelor Button 4c. Jeweled Shirtwaist Pins 3 for 10c. We are also agents for Warren's Featherbone, of which we keep all kinds in stock.

UNCLE SAM AND GREATER AMERICA

BOSS GEORGE B. COX OF CINCINNATI is one of the men who sticks to his friends; and for this he is to be admired above any of his traducers.

THE NEW Jersey Supreme Court has rendered a decision, said to be the first in this country, in favor of a Trust. The decision was given in the suit of the New York Trust Company against Brown & Fleming. About two years ago there was a brisk competition between the rival firms and owners of quarries and a Trust was formed. Several of the quarries were closed and persons were advanced. A part of the agreement was that only the agent of the Trust could sell the stone and a penalty of $5,000 was prescribed for violating this clause of the contract. There was some dissatisfaction and Brown & Fleming was accepted an order for a large quantity of stone. The Trust demanded the penalty of $5,000, but the firm refused to pay the forfeit and decided to oppose the Trust. The company instituted suit for the amount of the penalty. Brown & Fleming filed a demurrer, setting forth that by the declaration of the plaintiff the company admitted it was a Trust, that it was an illegal combination formed for the purpose of destroying competition and to control the prices of trap rock.

The Supreme Court has given a decision overruling the demurrer. The court holds that a contract that a single person shall be employed as the sole agent of the manufacturers to sell all their output does not violate any principle of law and may be enforced. It was a decision of the entire court and was a surprise to many lawyers. The case combined had been dissolved by Chancellor McGill a few years ago for the same reasons that were advanced in the demurrer.

The four Democratic Justices voted against the demurrer. The attention of Br'er BRYAN, and Br'er MARSH, and Br'er SAM STAINS is respectfully called to this case. Those Democratic Justices must be disappointed.

Would Not Suffer So Again for Fifty Times Its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose freed me at once. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.—G. H. Wilson, Livermore, Georgetown, Washington, D. C. This remedy is for sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

The C. and O. Railway has issued an order that all station agents shall wear a white uniform cap, similar to those worn by trainmen, while on duty.

The City of Paris has died suit against G. H. Graves & Son of Boston for $30,000. The sum is for taxes on three hundred barrels of quinine-wine-whisky stored in Paris since 1888, during which time the city claims the whisky has not been assessed for taxation.

Four thousand of the volunteers in Manila are said to have petitioned the Secretary of War to be discharged and given travel pay at Manila that they may remain and establish an American colony. The petitioners are also willing to form a national guard in the islands.

Is This Your Story?

"Every morning I have had taste in my mouth; my tongue is coated; my head aches and I feel tired all day long. I try to breakfast, and what food I eat does me no good. I have lost my appetite, I am getting so weak that sometimes I tremble, and I feel all strange. I am getting tired and thin. I am as light as a feather. Is this the trouble? I am sure. What is the remedy?"

 ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

THE YOUNG MEN.
 What the Maysville Y. M. C. A. is Doing For Their Betterment.

Instead of the regular Men's Rally Sunday afternoon the Association will hold an open-air Gospel meeting at Dietrich's Park at 5 o'clock, to which the public, both ladies and men, are invited. Rev. F. W. Harrow will conduct the service, which means an enjoyable one to all who attend. Everybody come. If the weather is bad the meeting will be held at the Association rooms.

FLOTSAM—JETSAM—LIGAN!
 NEWS NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

The Bonanza will be up tonight for Pomeroy. The Virginia for Pittsburgh will pass up tonight. The City of Pittsburgh will pass up today from Louisville for Pittsburgh. The Henry M. Stanley will pass down tomorrow morning from Charleston. From the indications there will be good water in the Kanawha for the coal loaded in that stream to be brought out. There is no great deal of coal loaded, but the shippers are glad of an opportunity to get out what they have at this time of year. The Bridge Board of the Ohio river will meet Monday at the office of Major Charles F. Powell in Pittsburgh, and hold a public session to hear all objections to the building of a bridge across the Ohio river at Sewickley, below Pittsburgh. The board will meet at Major Powell's office at 9:30 a. m., and at the site of the bridge, Sewickley, at 12:45. The board is composed of Major Powell of Pittsburgh, Major Harvey of Cincinnati and Captain Zinn of Louisville. Bids for the towing of the United States dredgeboats Ohio and Oswego this season have just been opened by Major W. H. Bixby, United States Engineer in charge of the improvements of the Ohio river. C. W. Powery, the widely known colored steamboatman of Pittsburgh, is the lowest bidder. He proposes to use the steamer L. A. Harvey, which is not yet finished, and will do the work for $37 75 a day. Thomas M. Hens, owner of the John C. Fisher, bid $50. Stephen D. Davis, of Marietta, owner of the Catherine Davis, is next at $42. Lewis Pope & Sons of Parkersburg, W. Va., put in the Darling at $45, and Val P. Collins of Cincinnati is the highest in the list with the G. W. Morewood at $47.50. The contract has not yet been given out. Captain Peter Sprague, J. B. Finley and G. C. McElvinn, the appraisers who went South in the interests of the Monocahshier River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company, have returned to Pittsburgh and have nothing to say in reference to their recent visit South. It is believed that the Pittsburgh Coal Exchange will be abolished as an organization. It is said that there will be little use for it if the river coal business is to be conducted under one head, and that the abolishing of it would stop assessments among its members. It is, however, thought that Captain John F. Dravo will be retained to look after legislation and that J. Frank Taylor will be engaged to blow out wrecks and look after shore business, he being an expert at the former occupation. A decision, which is of great interest to boatmen and steamboatmen generally, has recently been rendered. In case of an accident on a steamboat, the company owning her is only liable for damages to the extent of the value of that particular boat, thus not endangering the capital stock and protecting other boats of the line from attachment. "This means," says The Waterways Journal, "that should a boat belonging to an organized company blow up, sink, burn, kill, injure, injure one or more persons or members of the crew, said company cannot be sued for more than the appraised value of the wreck of that particular boat. Should the boat be a total loss, no judgment for damages can be collected. It is a surprising decision, but a fact, nevertheless."

For relief and comfort in Asthma Cassen's Honey of Tar has no equal. Price 25 and 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

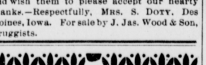

The school children's statue of Lafayette to be presented to France will be the work of Paul Wayland Bartlett and George C. Barnard.

Ostriches are not the only swift running animals that can outstrip the speed of a horse. There is a land crab in Cuba, it is said, that can rival the ostrich, and go much faster than a horse. In contrast to this is the snail, that takes fourteen days and five hours to travel one mile.

A yellow, jaundiced skin is a symptom of disordered liver, as it springs from biliary poisons retained in the blood, which destroy energy, cheerfulness, strength, vigor, happiness of life. Herbine will restore the natural functions of the liver. Price 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

A new industry is springing up in Northern Mexico—sinking wells for salt water to manufacture salt for mining and domestic purposes. One man has cooped secured 125,000 acres of salt water territory at Camaron, 120 miles south of Laredo, and have struck water containing 12 per cent. salt, worth from 1 to 3 cents a pound.

A Card of Thanks.
 I wish to say that I feel under lasting obligation for what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has done for our family. We have used it in so many cases of coughs, lung troubles and whooping cough, and it has always been the most perfect satisfaction. We feel greatly indebted to the manufacturers of this remedy and wish them to please accept our hearty thanks.—Respectfully, Mrs. S. Dory, Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.
